

The Planting Ultimate Packing List

Packing for a camping festival can be difficult. It's a delicate balance of remembering to pack the necessities and prioritising all of the things you might not need, but just can't leave behind! All, while not packing too much. Coming into our 21st Planting Festival this year, we have collectively had our fair share of winning packing experiences and some, well not so crash hot. So, we've compiled one list which is a combination of staff, long time camping veterans and performers ultimate packing list.

- Other Helpful Tips
- Leggings in your bag for when the sunsets and it gets chilly. This will save you having to prematurely walk back to your campsite. Just so you don't miss a thing!
- A hanging toiletry bag. A great asset for an easy showering experience
- Please remember we don't allow glass on site so consider alternates when packing anything ordinarily packaged in glass.
- We unfortunately can't control the weather (although we're trying) so prepare for all conditions to ensure you have a comfortable stay.
